Aging and Brain Injury: Expectations and Realities

Rolf B. Gainer, PhD

Neurologic Rehabilitation Institute at Brookhaven Hospital
Community NeuroRehab
Rehabilitation Institutes of America
Disclosure

• Rolf B. Gainer, PhD has business relationships with Brookhaven Hospital, the Neurologic Rehabilitation Institute of Ontario, Community NeuroRehab of Iowa and Rehabilitation Institutes of America

• The studies conducted by Brookhaven Hospital, Community Neuro Rehab and the Neurologic Rehabilitation Institute are self-supporting and receive no public or private grant monies.
objectives:
To understand brain injury as a chronic disease which affects the person throughout their lifetime
To consider co-morbid conditions which affect the process of aging with a brain injury
To understand the accelerated process of aging related to people living with a brain injury
This presentation can be found in its entirety at TraumaticBrainInjury.net

Look under “Resources” on the header, then “Community Presentations”

This presentation cannot be copied, used or distributed without permission of the author.